

FUTURE COACHES

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

In both the men's and women's game, Black, Asian, Minority Ethnic coaches continue to be significantly underrepresented.

The FA, Cheshire FA and Manchester FA are committed to changing that. We're committed to developing more opportunities for Black, Asian, Minority Ethnic coaches to get experience, support and guidance to enhance coaching skills and discover pathways into and within the game of football.

As part of our Diversity & Inclusion coach development work, in partnership Cheshire FA and Manchester FA will be providing up to 30 young coaches from historically underrepresented backgrounds and females with an opportunity to become a member of the 2022-23 Future Coaches.

To be part of you must apply via an online application -

Successful applicants will be part of a coach development group and receive:

- Personalised 1-2-1 coaching support providing Guidance, Connection and Understanding
- Have access to a coach mentor
- 4 x bespoke theory and practical coach development face to face events* delivered by the FA Regional Coach Development Officer (Diversity & Inclusion)
- Observe experienced UEFA A and B licensed coaches working in a variety of settings
- Be signposted to opportunities to increase coaching knowledge and experience
