

PROVIDING A POSITIVE WELCOME TO YOUR CLUB

FOR PLAYERS & THEIR PARENTS/CARERS

Version: 1.1

PROVIDING A POSITIVE WELCOME TO YOUR CLUB

The FA encourages clubs to make information easily available for players and parents/carers about the type(s) of football on offer for under-18s and how this is offered. Being open about how teams are run, who is responsible for what can help to avoid unnecessary confusion, upset and even complaints.

How teams are selected, if/where the club goes on tour, which leagues and competitions they participate in, the welfare officers contact details and who's responsible for matchday tactics are all helpful to actively share. Many clubs provide most, if not all of the information that's needed, but for someone new to a club this may not always be as easy to find as you think.

The CLUB CHECKLIST: WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO on page 3 will help you to reflect on the information your club currently makes available, how it does this and what you might want to add. It also provides links to further helpful information available on The FA.com that you may wish to use.

N.B. The FA will be inviting feedback on this toolkit early in 2020 to help shape a new online resource tool where clubs can enter bespoke information and a personalised online resource will be produced.

Communicating proactively with parents/carers allows you to celebrate what's on offer, demonstrate the club ethos and how you support their child(ren) as well as what you expect of them. Why not require players and their parents/carers to acknowledge they have had access to this information and understand what is expected of them. There are two examples of 'USER AGREEMENTS' (see Appendix 1) which provides guidance about how to do this. Once parents/carers fully understand what your club provides you may find they become more open to volunteering themselves.

Please note: before sharing personal information about your committee members and/or other club officials e.g. coaches/welfare officers make sure you have their permission to do this. Having photos, names and contact details available is really helpful for parents/carers but how you share this must take into account each individuals wishes.

And finally... we recognise there is quite a lot here to consider. Some of the information your club will already provide. The CLUB CHECKLIST will give you an idea of what you need to focus on by simply running through the tick boxes. You don't have to do everything at once. as a committee decide the priority areas for your club and take it from there.

APPROPRIATE CLUB OFFICIAL/COACH BEHAVIOURS

RELATIONSHIPS OF TRUST

Everyone who works/volunteers with children and young people (anyone under the age of 18) is responsible and accountable for the way in which they behave towards them. Every child has a right to be treated with respect and dignity.

- It's expected that all adult-child relationships maintain clear boundaries at all times, are supportive, positive and aimed at improving the young person's skills, development and progress. The adult-child relationships should all focus on the respective activity/event.
- No intimate or sexual relationship should take place while the member of staff or volunteer is in a position of trust relationship with a player.

In addition, inappropriate, intimate or sexual relationships between an adult and a young player aged 16 and 17 may be unlawful, irrespective of gender and sexual orientation.

The FA's Position

"It is an offence for a person aged 18 or over to involve a child under that age in sexual activity where he or she is in a specified position of trust in relation to that child. This includes those who care for, advise, supervise or train children and young people (Sexual Offences Act 2003)".

The principle of this section of the Sexual Offences Act 2003 is applied by The FA. Therefore, if you engage in an intimate or sexual relationship with a young player it is a breach of The Football Association Regulations and as such may result in disciplinary action and where appropriate a referral will be made to the statutory agencies, including the Police, and applicable Local Authorities bodies, for example, the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS).

Where a relationship of trust exists, it does not make any difference whether or not the relationship is consensual. The imbalance of power makes it an abuse of that relationship of trust.

Taking Positive Action

- Maintain a relationship with all participants that are appropriate to your role and reflects positively on the organisation for whom you work or volunteer.
- As someone in a position of authority you should not seek or engage in sexual activity or sexualised communication with any U18s via social media including 16 or 17 year olds for whom you are responsible.
- If you think that a young person's behaviour indicates that they are seeking to develop or engage in an inappropriate relationship with you, immediately bring this to the attention of your Designated Safeguarding Officer or line manager. Be careful not to respond to the young person in any way that could be interpreted as encouraging them. Make a written record of your concerns and relevant details.
- If you suspect an individual with a specified role in football is abusing a position of trust, or may abuse, you should report this to the Designated Safeguarding Officer. Make a written record of your concerns and relevant details.

- If you feel your concern has not been dealt with appropriately, refer the matter directly to The FA Safeguarding Team via 0800 083 5902 or via email Safeguarding@TheFA.com
- Alternatively, you can seek advice from the 24 hour NSPCC Helpline – 0808 800 500.

PHYSICAL CONTACT

There are a number of principles that must be followed when an activity involves physical contact. Physical contact during sport must always be intended to meet the child's needs not the adults. The adult must only use appropriate physical contact to:

- Develop sports skills or techniques in line with accepted practice;
- Treat an injury in line with any first aid or medical qualification or guidance;

- Prevent an injury or accident occurring;
- Meet the requirements of the sport.

The adult must describe the nature and reason for the physical contact to the child reinforcing the teaching or coaching skill. Unless the situation is an emergency, the adult must ask for the child's permission.

Contact should not involve the genital areas, buttocks, breasts or any other part of the body that may cause the child distress or embarrassment.

Physical contact must always take place in an open or public environment and not take place in secret or out of sight of others.

CLUB COMMUNICATIONS

We will require your contact details as the parent(s)/carer(s) ensuring these are accessible in the case of an emergency and commit to an open and transparent communications about club activity relevant to you and your child. It's your responsibility to ensure your contact details are up to date.

We recognise that whatever way we communicate with your child the safeguarding principles remain the same. Retaining boundaries is just as important online as it is offline. Our club officials are required to communicate appropriately (about relevant football related matters) using open and transparent communications respectfully whether face to face or online.

Please make use of the club's website/social media page(s) for general information.

WE WILL:

- Provide you with the relevant club officials contact details – always providing those of our Club Welfare Officer

- Only use group texts, emails or messenger apps and always copy either you as parent/ carer or the designated member of the club to all communications with your child.

OUR CLUB OFFICIALS SHOULD NOT:

- Use language that is directly (or could be misinterpreted as being) racist, sexist, derogatory, threatening, abusive or sexualised in tone.
- Share pictures, jokes or other items of a personal nature.
- Respond to digital communications from children other than those directly related to club matters.

UNLESS A CHILD OR YOUNG PERSON IS A DIRECT RELATION, OUR CLUB OFFICIALS SHOULD NOT:

- Accept as a friend, players or referees under the age of 18 on social networking sites of which they are members;
- Share their own personal social networking sites with children or young people involved in youth football;
- Make contact with children or young people known through football outside of the football context on social networking sites;
- Use internet or web-based communications to send personal messages of a non-football nature to a child or young person;
- Engage in any personal communications, 'banter' or comments.

YOU SHOULD:

- Ensure social media privacy and security settings are appropriate for your child's use;
- Kept these settings up to date by reviewing guidance from the provider and or specialists such as Childnet or NSPCC.
