WELCOME

Good evening and welcome to the players, officials and spectators for this evening's Capital Women's Cup (Junior Section) Final between Edgware Town Ladies and Sport London E Benfica Ladies.

Firstly I would like to thank Surrey FA for the kind use of their excellent facilities tonight and secondly thanks must go to the organising Committee who have worked tirelessly to keep the Capital Women's Cups up and running throughout these difficult and demanding times. The Committee members are Melanie Armstrong & Derryl David (AFA), Jamaal Horne (London FA), Kayleigh Saunders & Samantha Read (Middlesex FA), Bob Dick (Surrey FA) and Secretary Gill Jones (Army FA)

Congratulations to the two competing teams Edware Town Ladies and Sport London E Benfica, and congratulations also to the appointed match officials Lucy Clark in the middle and her two assistants Dominic Ferris and Elle Kaplicz, with Steve Ferris as the fourth official.

On behalf of the Committee I would like to wish the best of luck to the teams on the pitch this evening, give your all and enjoy every moment.

FAMILIAR

The clubs had a win apiece this season in the Greater London Women's Football League!

CURRENT HOLDERS

With no competition in 2019/20 due to COVID, Comets still hold the title of the last winners!

EDGWARE TOWN LADIES

Managers Notes from Avril Clark

The ladies have bounced back stronger after lockdown and with League, Cup games and friendlies we are unbeaten this year. Including a win against our opposition today.

This season we added 8 new players to the squad to strengthen in all positions.

We have adjusted really quickly to virtually a new team showing spirit and fight for each other every time we step on the pitch.

We finished 3rd in the league and were unlucky to miss out on a top two finish with wins against both teams that dropped out leaving us disadvantaged.

Managers Notes from Gabe John

Sport London e Benfica are delighted to have made the County Cup Final.

Like so many teams, lockdown was a difficult time. The team were riding a wave of success until that was curtailed, but the Women of this team came back with renewed purpose and drive.

Having won GLWFL Div 1, reaching the final is the culmination of prolonged hard work and a real dream come true.

We'd like to offer huge thanks to Middlesex FA, Surrey FA and the GLWFL for getting the season and Cup completed.

As a club the direction, leadership and energy given by Chairman José Viana is the driving force behind where the club is going in it's 40th Year.

As a Manager I'd like to thank all the players, for their hard work, honesty and brilliance so far this season.

Força Benfica.
