DPR were reformed this season following a 3 year break from Sunday football. It's been a largely successful return, seeing us currently leading Swindon Sunday league division 2, in the Semi Final (at time of writing, we could now be in the final) of Swindon Knockout Cup, and here today in the Wiltshire County Cup Final.

The team would like to take this opportunity to thank our sponsors, David Ranford of DPR Transport who has always been a fantastic and very generous sponsor who looks after the team very well and supports us every week!

We wouldn't be where we are without him!

After establishing ourselves in 2014, we've been unable to obtain silverware throughout this period, right on the brink of achieving silverware, we were hit with covid, unfortunate not to go on and win our premier division, we decided to continue as a club.

Thankfully we've come together this year to get to the County Cup Final for the first time in the clubs history.
